ECLIPSE OF THE MOON—There will be a total eclipse of the moon to-morrow morning, which will be visible in the Middle and Southern States. The eclipse will commence at 12:50 a. m. and end at 3:51 a. m. The total phase will occur at 2 o'clock, and continue thirty-three minutes. The duration of the whole eclipse will be three hours and nine minutes.

The moon will enter the penumbra at 11:48 to-night. The effect of the penumbra will, in all probability, be nearly indiscernible, as the moon's radiance after the penumbral shadow has passed over it will be nearly as brilliant as before. At 12:50 a. m. the moon will begin to enter the shadow, and after this hour the shadow will slowly creep upon the moon's broad surface. The eclipse will be total at 2:04 to-morrow morning and end at 2:38, when the moon will leave the shadow entirely at 3:56.

STREET RAILROAD—The committee appointed to solicit subscriptions for the sale of a sufficient number of fare tickets to guarantee the running of the street cars again has, it is understood, made little progress, but solely because its members have made no effort. Of the eight members but one, it is said, has attempted to secure subscriptions, and he was unsuccessful than he anticipated. If the others do not proceed at once with the work assigned them, and raise the required three thousand dollars immediately, the cars will be sold and the track torn up, and then they will regret their present supineness. As a matter of economy it would be well to save the road from destruction, for it will be paying stock before very long, and to rebuild it will cost much more than it can be bought for.

LETTER TO A TAX COLLECTOR—The following is a copy of a letter received this morning by one of the City Tax Collectors:

MR. JOHN T. HILL, Sir—You have got my name wrong. I spelled my name to you. You know my name, but you have got my tax bill Myers. That is not my name. I will pay no more taxes in that name. My children can't go to school, so I can't pay any more taxes. I never was right at any time, so you may not look for any more taxes from me till the law takes them, and then I will see how this law I have given you my name—you received my money on another name—I go to the school with my bills—they won't take my children in, so I can't pay any more taxes.
 Respectfully, &c.

ACCIDENTS—A young man named John Hammond, clerk at the grocery store of Wm. Johnson, corner of Pitt and Queen streets, had his hand severely injured yesterday by a safe door which closed upon it.

Carey Hill, a little son of Dr. J. C. Hill, was tripped by a boy, at the intersection of Columbus and Princess streets yesterday evening, and falling upon the brick pavement had his head badly cut and so injured that he was carried home in an unconscious condition.

COUNTY POLITICS—Gentlemen from the county report that the approaching election occasions but little excitement; that the candidates nominated at the late County Convention will be elected with but little opposition; that no political meetings have been held; that the county since the late Convention has been added; that not over a dozen names have been added to the registration books, and that but few of the colored people will vote for either of the candidates for Congress, upon the ground that Hinton is the nominee of the Conservative Convention, and that Mr. Barbour is the candidate of Col. Mosby, for whom they have no particular liking.

The books will be permanently closed at sundown.

SALES BY WEIGHT—The Clerk of the Market had all the market people informed this morning that in accordance with the provisions of the newly codified Corporation laws, on and after the 1st of next month all wheat, corn, corn-meal, barley, hony, buckwheat, Irish and sweet potatoes, beans, peas, bran, onions, dried apples and peaches must be sold by weight and not by measure.

TRAMPS—As the winter approaches the tramps are beginning to wind their way to the warmer latitudes of the South, where nights can be spent more agreeably in the open air than in the colder regions of the North. The lodging apartments at the station house are filled now almost every night by these wayfarers whom night overtakes in this city.

PARTRIDGES—In some of the counties in Maryland it is against the law to kill partridges before the first of November. A provision of that sort ought to be incorporated into the Virginia hunting laws, for some of the partridges brought to market, this morning, were not more than half grown.

CORRESPONDENCE.

FAIRFAX, October 11th, 1874.
 Louis E. Payne, esq.:

Dear Sir: I regret to see it reported that the colored people are opposing your re-election on the ground that Judge Sangster will allow one of their race to fill the office. Undoubtedly I would not exclude from office any man on account of race, color or previous condition of service. I have not the power to do so if I had the inclination. But the colored people should remember that the interests of the entire community are involved in the proper management of the Clerk's office, and that it is of the highest importance that it should be filled by a competent person—one fitted for its duties not only by education, but by training and experience—and they would be doing injustice to the whole country, themselves included, to turn out an efficient clerk simply to put one of their own race in office.

They might for the same reason and with equal propriety elect as Commonwealth's Attorney one of their own color who had never read a law book.

While I have always been disposed to do justice to all men, shall continue so far as it lies in my power, to give every man his every right, I wish it understood that the business of my court shall not be retarded by an incompetent officer, white or black.

I sincerely hope, if the report be correct, that the colored people of your county will "let well enough alone." I will pardon me for saying it, they have a competent clerk, and it would be much better to re-elect him than to run the risk of a repetition of occurrences, that have already made trouble enough, by electing a new and untried man. Yours truly,
 J. SANGSTER.

ALEXANDRIA CO., VA., Oct. 16, 1874.

Judge James Sangster:
 Accept my sincere thanks for the kind expressions of regard, as an officer of your court, contained in your letter of the 11th inst. Fully recognizing the value of those expressions, I am pleased to state that, in view of the unanimity with which my nomination was made a few days ago it is not probable the relations existing between us are to terminate this fall. I hope those relations may endure long, and be as pleasant in the future as in the past. Very truly and respectfully,
 LOUIS E. PAYNE.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.]

The Episcopal Convention.
 NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—In the Episcopal Convention to-day the committee to whom was referred the resolution from the diocese of Pittsburgh, in reference to a Court of Appeals, reported that there could be no such change in the judicial system of the church without a change in its organic law. The report was adopted and the committee discharged. The committee also reported that any other form of prayer than that laid down in the prayer-book could not be authorized without a change in the canons.

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred the subject of changes in deacon's orders, reported that it was inexpedient to make any changes.

Rev. Mr. Jennings, of Missouri, offered the following, which were placed on the calendar: Resolved (the House of Bishops concurring), That the practice commonly described under the name of eucharistic adoration, and the practice designated as sacrament of penance, together with all teachings leading to the above-named practices, are hereby solemnly declared to be foreign to this church.

Resolved, That the Committee on Prayer-book be requested to prepare and report to this convention such rubrics as may be judged by said committee needed for the preservation of the ritual of this church in its integrity and purity.

Resolved, That the Committee on Canons be instructed to ascertain whether any legislation may be necessary to prohibit in public worship, commonly called divine service, in communion and baptismal offices, in the order of confirmation, in the solemnization of matrimony and in the order for the burial of the dead, the use by any minister or lay reader of this church, of any prayer, litany, suffrage, thanksgiving, exhortation or form of absolution other than those contained in the book of canon prayer.

Foreign News.
 LONDON, Oct. 24.—A special from Berlin to the Pall Mall Gazette says that the judge who has been entrusted with the duty of making preliminary inquiry into the case of Count Von Arnim is expected back on Monday from Paris, where he is collecting evidence. Taking testimony of Prince Hohenlohe, German Ambassador at Paris, and of Prince Bismarck, only remains to complete preliminary inquiry.

BERLIN, Oct. 24.—It is expected that the public trial of Count Arnim will begin early in December next. Prince Bismarck will be the principal witness for prosecution.
 ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 24.—A dispatch from Tiflis brings intelligence of a destructive fire in the business portion of that city. At the time the fire was seen a church had been entirely destroyed, and upwards of one hundred stores burned out. The fire is still raging.

Alabama.
 NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—A letter from the correspondent of the Times in Alabama, who is quoted for by that paper as a strong Republican, says he has ridden for miles along unfrequented roads, and been in all the large cities, and not only failed to discover any trace of reign of terror, but found the negroes quietly at work. The Times alluding editorially to the letter says: "He finds no reign of terror in Alabama, no war of races, and no pretence that recent crimes in that State have been instigated for political motives. He found the alleged murders of Mr. Billings to be men unlike the blood thirsty ruffians they had been painted, and he appears to think the so-called evidence against them is ridiculously inadequate."

Insurance Difficulties.
 BOSTON, Oct. 24.—A portion of the members of the Unity Mutual Life Insurance Company of this city have appealed to the Insurance Commissioners to have the financial condition of the company examined, claiming that there are irregularities. The Commissioners are understood to have taken preliminary measures by sending to the officers of the company a set of blanks to be filled up and returned to them. To this the officers reply by refusing to make any returns, alleging that they are not a legal society, within the meaning of the statutes of the Commonwealth, and therefore not answerable to this tribunal.

Distressing Accident.
 MEMPHIS, TENN., Oct. 24.—While four young men were hunting deer in Tollandatchie, Baldon, Popola Co., Miss., one of them, Ben. Mitchell, who had separated from the rest, observed the cane slaking in front of him and thinking it was caused by deer, fired and killed Thos. Mosley, mortally wounded David White and severely wounded W. B. Johnson.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Some of the residents of the St. Asaph street depot were greatly alarmed, to-day, by a car load of powder that was received. The Mayor was applied to for protection, but the danger had been removed when his officers went to look after it.

The whole market was ransacked and several houses searched last night for a lot of cab-bages, said to have been stolen from a countryman, but which, it was afterwards discovered, had been sold by the owner, who had forgotten the transaction.

The Fairfax News says: Jane Jones, colored, a lunatic, in charge of Deputy Sheriff Wm. Ayre, jr., and Mr. Geo. W. Gaines, was taken from the jail of this county and conveyed to the Central Lunatic Asylum, Richmond, on Tuesday of this week.

The market was well supplied with all sorts of provisions this morning—including a good assortment of fresh fish and some game.—Prices were about the same as those of last Saturday.

Mr. Robert Portner has commenced the erection of a large ice house near the canal basin, from which to supply his extensive brewery.

The City Council Committee on Public Property advertise, elsewhere in to-day's Gazette, for proposals for digging a well in the jail yard.

Letters addressed to Ellen Payne and Lucretia Payne are detained in the Postoffice here for want of postage.

Another tournament will be held near Fairfax Court-house on Wednesday next, to be followed by a ball at night.

Oysters were abundant at the dock this morning, and were selling at from 25 to 50 cts. a bushel, according to size.
